

Researchers' Café

MARCH 12, 2019

Co-hosted by Fraser Health's Department of Evaluation and Research Services (DERS) and the BC SUPPORT Unit Fraser Centre

Stories of Patient-Oriented Health Research

Date: March 12, 2019 (Tuesday)

Time: 9:00am-11:00am

Location: Central City, 13450 102 Avenue, Surrey BC (Arbutus and Birch Rooms, 4th Floor)

This session is open to Fraser Health employees, physicians, the public and those from partner institutions. Breakfast pastries, fruits and beverages will be provided.

Register here. For more information about each presentation, click here.

Presentations:

- Becoming Known: Determining Indigenous Cultural Safety and Cultural Humility Priorities

Vishal Jain, Lead, Aboriginal Health

Shantelle Medel, Research Project Coordinator

- Responding to the Overdose Crisis: Exploring Risk and Resilience with a Hidden Patient Population in the Fraser East

Jennifer Hawkins, Community Health Specialist

James Robson, Peer Researcher, Chilliwack Overdose Response Project

Daniel Snyder, Peer Coordinator, Langley Community Action Team

- Prioritizing the Perspectives of Vulnerable Patients in the Development and Design of Research

Sarah Canham, PhD, Research Associate, Simon Fraser University

Scott A. Small, Project Partner; Director, Catholic Charities Shelter Services, Archdiocese of Vancouver

- Partnership in the Social Robot Project

Lillian Hung, PhD, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Vancouver Coastal Health; Clinical Assistant Professor, University of British Columbia; and Postdoc Fellow, Simon Fraser University

Mario Gregorio, Community Engagement Advocacy Network (CEAN) Member, Vancouver Coastal Health

To register, click here.

Questions?

Contact Camille Viray, Education and Communications Coordinator, Department of Evaluation and Research Services at camille.viray@fraserhealth.ca or 604-587-4413.