

Health Talks

BOLD IDEAS
Stories that Inspire

Quality Forum 2020
Shaping Success Together

 BC PATIENT SAFETY & QUALITY COUNCIL

STUDENT CONTEST!

Enter at QualityForum.ca

CONTEST CLOSES NOVEMBER 12

Tell us your hopes for health care

On February 25, you could be a speaker at Health Talks, where eight people will give PechaKucha presentations about their hopes for health care.

Why apply?

Over 350 people will be in the audience. Your hope could inspire a change to BC's health care system! Watch last year's presentations at QualityForum.ca. The winner will also receive one complimentary registration to Quality Forum 2020 (valued at over $375). It's a three-day conference that hosts more than 1200 people who network and share ways to improve care and patient safety.

How to apply?

Send us your hope in any of the following formats:

- Video (max. 3.5 minutes)
- Essay (max. 500 words)
- Design concept, photo, poem...surprise us!

Who can apply?

- All students in British Columbia: post-secondary, high school, elementary school – all are welcome!
- Individuals or duos

Winner of the 2019 student contest:

Claudia Hopkins

Student, Emily Carr
University of Art + Design

