

The OSNS Child & Youth Development Centre exists to lift up children in need of developmental care. We are passionate about this mission and it binds our team of about 50 amazing people into a determined collective.

Our organization currently seeks an Executive Director to lead us in our efforts.

The role of Executive Director at OSNS is impactful. It gives the opportunity to steer initiatives that change lives and focus us on doing what matters.

In collaboration with the dedicated Directors of our Board and the OSNS Legacy Foundation Board, the Executive Director provides overall leadership for our organization - advancing our strategic priorities while maintaining our excellence in care and strong relationships with community partners.

Our official mission is to optimize the health and well-being of every child, youth and family we serve. But really – it's more than that. We want OSNS to be a place of goodness for all those who enter. We want involvement in our centre – for our team, our donors, our volunteers and most of all – our children and families. The OSNS is located in the beautiful Okanagan Valley. Salary is competitive. Start date is December 5, 2022 or a mutually agreed upon date.

If you share our vision, please respond with a cover letter and resume to janet.glowa@osns.org.

The OSNS values diversity in the work force and strives to maintain an environment of Respect, Caring & Trust. Our hiring practices aspire to ensure all individuals are treated in an inclusive, equitable, and culturally safe manner.
